

My Top Strengths Poster

Thriving Learning Communities™: Top Strengths Tuesday

Grab your crayons, markers, or pencils! Use your creativity to make a poster advertising your top “signature” strengths. Find a great place to hang your poster at home. Encourage everyone in your household to participate! The character strengths chart is a great place to go for more information about your signature strengths.

My name is David and one of my top strengths is judgment!

I can help you solve problems and think things through!

Free LOVE available!

Comes with hugs, kind words, and quality time together.

Reach out to Lisa for more information!

Need someone to talk to?

I have perspective as a top strength and give great advice!

~Serenity

We can use all our 24 strengths to thrive! Use these weekly reminders to practice spotting strengths and flexing your unique combination of character strengths!

For additional social-emotional learning activities through the lens of character strengths, visit:

<http://bit.ly/TLCathome>

24

character strengths

